

K585

Slim Multi-Device Wireless Keyboard

MODERN. MINIMALIST. MULTI-DEVICE.

Own your space with the K585 Slim Multi-Device – an ultra-thin and design-forward keyboard perfect for simultaneously typing your ideas on your laptop and a text on your smartphone.

Type across computers, tablets, and smartphones from one keyboard for one seamless workflow – with a built-in phone cradle for easier multitasking. The compact design integrates a number pad and media shortcuts, so you can work efficiently and comfortably in tight spaces.

The quiet low-profile keys offer fluid, laptop-like typing, while an auto-sleep feature preserves battery life, so you can power through your work.
