Environmentally speaking

We are working hard to minimize our impact on the environment by reducing waste, single-use plastic and our carbon footprint, while increasing the use of recycled and sustainably-sourced materials.

Innovative design for all

Our team of experienced educationalists strive to create multisensory resources to engage, inspire and delight. Innovation and a keen eye for detail go hand-in-hand to deliver an award-winning range loved by both practitioners and children.

Quality you can count on

Day in, day out, our resources are tested to the toughest of standards to withstand whatever children can throw at them – sand, water and mud included! You can be confident our resources are up to the challenge of an early childhood environment and are safe for small hands.

Let's play together!

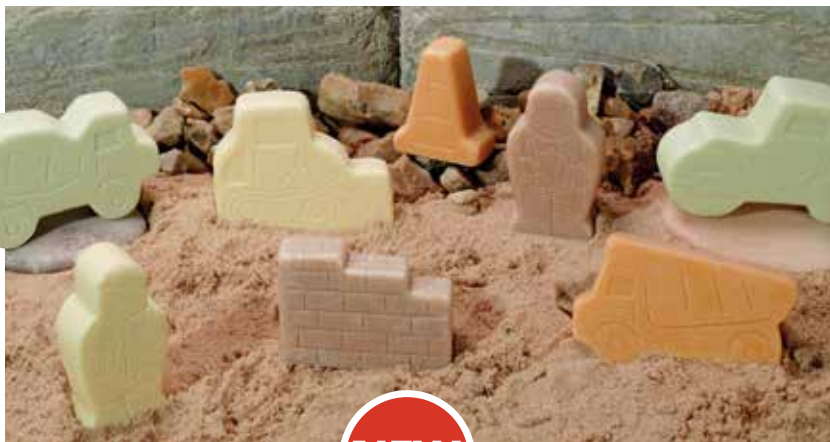

We are a small, friendly and flexible team and we love what we do! It isn't just children who learn best when they are having fun; we do too. And we especially enjoy learning from our customers, so if you have an idea, give us a call – we'd love to talk to you!
