HP RP9 Integrated 2x20 Display Top w/Arm (P5A55AA)

Overview

Deliver easily readable price, product, and order information to your customers with the HP RP9 Integrated 2x20 Display, designed for the HP RP9 Retail System.

Save space and minimize cabling

Simply connect the display to the top or bottom bezel USB port on your HP RP9 Retail System, which powers the accessory and eliminates the need for cabling. The attached arm supports flexible positioning and rotation.

Retail-ready design.

Place the durable display in a range of high-traffic areas. The edge-to-edge, bezel-less glass is easy to clean, helps provide protection from dust, and creates a sleek, modern appearance.
