2013 SUMMER SUPPLEMENT

Greetings,

As you can see from our cover, we are pedaling fast to bring you the latest SPI Home creations for the Summer of 2013. We hope you find the collections as amusing and functional as we did when we created them.

We are very happy to add 15 new versions of our Bluetooth Speakers to the original four, launched this past January. Now with nearly 20 styles, both indoor and outdoor, we are not only the innovator but the largest provider of speakers that combine Bluetooth technology and Home Decor. And... now another innovation - the outdoor models are now water resistant. Not just the speaker but also the connection, if you use an extension cord to power them. Now, you can safely leave them in the rain... Hurricanes might be out, but normal weather will not affect these speakers, which are absolutely perfect for the patio and yard. If you haven't heard one of them yet, you will be stunned with the volume and clarity AND the convenience of sending music from your phone or tablet to the speaker via Bluetooth. It is so easy... and sounds so good. There is just nothing like a little Aerosmith in the backyard.

I am sure that you have already realized that we have been invaded by peacocks of many sizes and function. Some of them even hold your wine for dinner or your door afterwards. There is new Art Glass and Garden Art and of course, more bookends.

Enjoy.
