TASKMATE™
Go

Natural way to energize your work day.

The Taskmate Go from Healthpostures is a sleek cost effective way to enjoy a healthy energetic work-style. Now you can effortlessly move from a sitting to a standing position, improving productivity and comfort while having the freedom to move whenever you like.

Just clamp the Taskmate Go to your existing work surface and mount your computer monitor. A simple squeeze of the conveniently placed lever is all you need to move your monitor, keyboard, mouse and other items into a comfortable standing position. Releasing the lever at the desired height causes the unit to lock into place, giving you a sturdy, height adjustable computer work station.

The Taskmate Go will not only keep you energetic and focused throughout your workday, it will also help you burn calories, lose weight and alleviate back pain. It's all in a day's work for the Taskmate Go!
