Safeguard your iPad Pro® (12.9-inch) 3rd gen. screen with premium scratch-resistant protection. Made from Japanese Asahi glass with the highest-possible 9H hardness rating, Targus Tempered Glass Screen Protectors keep your tablet scratch-free even after run-ins with keys, coins, and other stray objects in your pocket, purse, or office. In fact, they're so durable that we confidently back them with a limited lifetime warranty.*

Along with superior protection, count on crisp, crystal-clear viewing that's never marred by bubbles or residue, even after repeated repositioning – for maximum viewing enjoyment and productivity. Your touchscreen responsiveness will be equally top-notch, with no interference from your protective layer. Custom-cut rounded edges precisely mimic the shape of your iPad Pro® screen for a smooth, secure fit, while the advanced oleophobic coating helps keep it clean and fingerprint-free.

*For Targus Tempered Glass Screen Protectors, a limited lifetime warranty on the screen protector for as long as the original end purchaser owns the product. The warranty does not extend to any devices or product not manufactured by Targus.
