

Air Vent Magnetic Mount with Support Base

The Cellairis® Air Vent Magnetic Mount with Support Base has been engineered to securely and conveniently support your heavier smart phone or device on almost any car air vent. It's heavy duty design allows your device to be more secured and stable. Designed with a convenient spring loaded pull tab that gives you piece of mind for a more secure and stable hold. It relieves the weight of the device on your air vent blade. You just hold your device close to the super strong magnetic surface and it locks into place!
