Product Description:

Game at a level above the competition with a system above the rest...the CLX SET (TGMSETRTU5303WM). A gaming desktop PC that can easily handle design and editing too. With this mighty CLX rig that's been hand-built in the USA, you get an advanced desktop processor, the newest 9000-Series AMD Ryzen 9 9900X with blazing speed and absolute power coming from the 16-Cores/32-Threads and its new high-performance "Zen 5" multi-chip architecture. This processor has a base clock speed of 4.4GHz and Max boost speed of up to 5.6GHz! Crank up the settings and prepare for high frame rate gaming because the newest 50-Series GeForce RTX 5070 Ti graphics card, equipped with 16GB of dedicated ultra high-speed GDDR7 memory, is also included. With the new GeForce RTX 5070 Ti you get a game-changer that's powered by NVIDIA Blackwell and a massive level of AI horsepower, plus Fifth-Gen Tensor Cores, Fourth-Gen Ray Tracing Cores, and cutting-edge NVIDIA DLSS 4 with Multi Frame Generation that uses AI, all to boost FPS and provide True-to-Life graphics! The performance may be exceptional, but this gaming PC is a stunner too, designed in the snow white, CLX Obelisk mid-tower chassis with full-size tempered-glass panels and several customizable RGB fans that not only showcase the build but also provide excellent airflow. There's also 360mm CLX Quench AIO liquid-cooling keeping the CPU running at peak performance so you can crank up the settings. With lightning-fast load times courtesy of the included 2TB NVMe M.2 SSD, you'll be able to load games and files with ease but also have ample storage for more games or projects. But that's not all, included is 32GB of 5600MHz DDR5 RGB memory that enhances the looks of the rig, but more importantly enhances its performance, setting the stage for intense gaming sessions or intense multitasking. But if you need more, maybe for high-end design applications, you can add more, up to a max 256GB! Crafted in the USA by passionate gamers, this PC epitomizes precision and reliability, and it's backed by industry-leading support to guarantee a smooth gaming journey. Upgrade to the latest CLX true gaming PC and step up your game today!
