FOLDING DOWN

Figure A
To unfold the hand truck, grab the end of the nose plate with one hand and the handle or body of the hand truck with the other. Pull the nose plate down and away from the center of the hand truck until it is fully lowered, and the wheels will fold away from the body to be perpendicular to the hand truck body.

Figure B
Press the button on the middle crossbar just below the handle and pull the handle up until the desired height is reached. Note: There are multiple height settings for the handle, and you may need to hold down the button or press it in again to reach the full extension.
